McKINNEY

Mrs. John Montgomery, who has been quite sick, is improving.

Mrs. Grace Wilcher is able to be out again after several days' serious illness.

We hope the "hicker" nuts will not be killed by the cold weather we are having.

Mr. D. V. Kennedy and wife are guests of his sister, Mrs. Lipitz Myers for a few days.

Mr. J. H. Walker has returned home from a few days' visit with relatives at Danville.

Mrs. Tom R. Meadows, one of our progressive farmers, who has been quite ill is out again.

Dr. C. B. Crech, of Middleburg, left a bouncing ten-pound son to reside with Mr. and Mrs. Louie Davidson on April 29th.

His many friends are glad to see Dr. J. C. Kelly out again after several days' illness. The doctor was greatly missed by his numerous patients.

There is less bootlegging in this vicinity at present than has been known for years. We consider this due to the team work of our city fathers.

A certain party in our town has been caught on two different occasions in a very embarrassing position, one in the Geneva section and again in the Green River Ford section. The grand jury will not doubt be called on to investigate and decide on the case.

Leslie J. Raugh has passed the examination at Louisville, and is now a full fledged soldier in Uncle Sam's State Guards. He will probably be located for the present guarding railroad bridges. Mr. Raugh volunteered his services to his country which is a very commendable act.

The oil well question is topic here and indications are that drilling will soon be in operation. The Daniel Boone Oil Co., has consigned to them a steam drill outfit placed here on a car ready for unloading. We understand the first well will be drilled about two miles south of this place on Green River.

Wallace Hughes, little son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hughes, is progressing excellently after his miserable suffering with a broken limb. The little fellow was compelled to have his limb re-broken on account of the ugly shape it was left in. Dr. Childress, of Hustonville, was summoned to take charge of the re-breaking.

Our city fathers met last Thursday night. There was nothing of importance brought before the meeting with the exception of the tax question. Practically every one has paid. There is no use trying to dodge this as it only causes extra work for the tax collector. Mr. Z. P. Smith, our city marshal and tax collector, is the right man in the right place and is experiencing very little trouble in collecting from the people who are worth while. Of course there are always a few Jonas who try to dodge the law, but such fellows' hat or coat caught off their bodies is not exempt.

HIGHLAND

Notwithstanding the cool weather which he have had for some days our farmers still continue planting corn etc.

While playing with a pistol yesterday, David, the ten-year-old son of L. S. Warfield, was shot in the thigh. Dr. C. M. Thompson, of King's Mountain, was called and dressed the wound.

Mrs. C. M. Young has been quite ill for the past ten days.

Rev. L. R. Godbey, of King's Mountain, filled his appointment at this place, preaching two interesting sermons.

The children of Charley Lewis, who have had the measles are still in a very serious condition.

Mr. Noah Hutchison, who has had the measles is getting along nicely.

Mr. Will Jenkins and wife and his wife, of near Harrodsburg, spent several days with the parents of Mrs. Jenkins.

Mrs. Smith Faulkner and son, Ross, have returned from a visit to her relatives at Ludlow.

T. D. Williams, who works in Cincinnati, was at home for a few days with his family last week.

Goebel Jones, of Piqua, O., spent several days with his friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Baugh, of Danville, were here Sunday to attend services at the Methodist church. Mr. Baugh will stay over this week and cover his barn.

Mrs. Muriel Acton Hatfield has returned from a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Lena Butt at Crab Orchard.

C. M. Young went to Louisville last week to see his brother-in-law, James T. Light, who is in a serious condition with rheumatism of the heart. He also visited his son, Rev. E. E. Young at Elizabeth, Ind., spending one night with his family.

Mrs. J. M. Cook, who has been with her daughter, Mrs. Cora Butt for some time, has improved in health so much as to be able to come back to her home again.

DIRECT TAXES OF $33 EACH

The war tax bill, extending its ex-cises to the fabric of every American home, formally was presented to the House Wednesday by the Ways and Means committee, with plans for quick passage.

As a foretaste of what may come later, it proposes special taxes to raise $1,800,000,000, in addition to the present normal annual revenue of $1,000,000,000. When its terms are effective, the American people will be paying direct taxes of $33 for each person. The people of the British Isles—half as many—pay taxes of $60 for each person.

While the principal features of the new war levy are the increases in income and profits taxes, increases in internal revenue rates, and increases of customs duties, many of its provisions reach the innermost structure of every home and make up a list of taxes, probably the most formidable ever faced by the American people.

The household light, heat and telephone bills, admission tickets of amusements, fire and light insurance, railway tickets, automobiles, automobile tires and tubes, soft drinks, postage rates, golf clubs and base ball bats, club dues and a host of other every-day necessities or luxuries come under the taxation.

Increased postage rates on newspapers, arranged in a zone system, are such that publishers will be forced many newspapers out of business. Protests against many features of the law are pouring in, and attacks on it will center in the Senate Finance committee, which will conduct public hearings on it and probably make some amendments.

There is some objection to hurrying the bill, and it probably will not be passed until the early part of next week.

LAST SAD RITES

The last sad rites of Mrs. H. C. Rupley, whose death was told of in Tuesday's Interior Journal, occurred Thursday morning when her pastor, Dr. W. D. Welburn preached her funeral at her late home on Logan avenue. The remarks were very appropriate and touching and must have carried comfort to the hearts of those whose loss has been so great. Some of Mrs. Rupley's favorite songs were sung by a quartette composed of Misses Josephine Carpenter and Minnie Straub and Dr. Welburn and Mr. J. C. McClary. After the services the remains were taken to Harrodsburg and laid to rest. The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: Messrs. T. D. Newland, Sr., J. N. Menefee, Sr., E. T. Pence, Sr., J. O. Newland, J. A. Allen and W. P. Kincaid. Quite a number of friends of the family accompanied the body to its last resting place.

WILLING TO SERVE

Mr. George P. Bright, who served valiantly in the Civil War as a soldier under Forest, tells the I. J. that his services are at the disposal of his country now or at any other time he is called. He, of course, could not shoulder a gun and do much fighting in the trenches, but he is willing to do whatever he can in these perilous times that would rebound to the interest of his country. The suggestion is made that old soldiers be selected to act as registrars when the work of drafting for the army begins. Mr. Bright will gladly serve in that capacity and asks no remuneration for his services. If enough old vets could be gotten to do the work that way a big saving to the government would be made and at the same time the work would be well done.

THE CHAUTAUQUA MAY 27-31

The Interior Journal is glad to state that season tickets to the Chautauqua at Stanford May 27 to 31, inclusive, are going rapidly and the prospect for a big crowd at each session is exceedingly good. Stanford people and those surrounding realize the big saving that is made by buying season tickets and they are getting them. Everything points to a successful Chautauqua and the delightful season is looked forward to with pleasure by people generally. If the weather is good the crowds that will attend the Chautauqua this year will break the good record made a year ago. Let us join in the hope that the weather man will do his best.

AGED PREACHER DEAD

Rev. J. T. Chastene, one of the oldest ministers in the county, died at his home near Turnersville and was buried in the Campbell cemetery near McKinney at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The old gentleman had been in very feeble health for a long time and his death was expected. For years he had been a Baptist preacher and had held a number of charges during his career. He was a clever man and a good citizen and will be missed in the neighborhood he had lived so long. He was 72 years old and is survived by his wife.

Bruce, Mrs. Bessie McKinney, Miss Kate Raney, Miss Levis Harris, Miss Sue Taylor Engleman, Miss Nancy Yeager and Miss Mary Burdette.

TURNER GETS TWO YEARS

Frank Turner, who used to live in Lincoln county, but moved to Richmond some years ago, was tried in the Madison circuit court this week on the charge of stealing a steer and was given two years in the reformatory. It was proven that he stole the steer out of the pasture of a man named Tudor. He sold the hide to M. Wides, of that city, and Tudor, playing the role of detective, caught on to the game. Turner has served a term at Frankfort for hog stealing and is a bad egg in more ways than one.

PROF. CANEER TO STANFORD

Prof. M. L. Caneer, principal of the Richmond High School, formerly superintendent of Lancaster schools, has been elected superintendent of Stanford schools. It is gratifying to Prof. Caneer's friends in Lancaster to know of his having landed the Stanford superintendency. We congratulate Stanford on securing the services of this splendid man as superintendent of her schools.—Lancaster Record.

CHANCELLOR'S FILLY WINS

Hasty Cora, a good filly owned by George E. Chancellor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Redell Chancellor, of this county, won the first race at Lexington Tuesday in great shape. $2 bets won $23 and the owner is said to have played his entry heavily. ONLY SEASON TICKETS COUNT

The Woman's Club, which brings the Chautauqua to Stanford May 27 to 31, is using its every endeavor to sell season tickets and $800 worth of them have to be disposed of before they can pay out. The money taken in at the door will go to the Chautauqua people. The ladies have to raise $800 and the season tickets compose the only revenue for them.

Will you help them? Stanford people do not lag at any time and especially will they come up like men when they know that the success of the coming event will depend on them making good their pledges to take season tickets. The contract with the Chautauqua people was made on the belief that those who had signed the cards taking tickets would pay for them. The Interior Journal believes they will do so. Last year the ladies got half of the money taken in at the tent door, but they are getting a much better program, one costing a great deal more, and were unable to make as good a contract this year as last.

HANDSOME STATEMENT

That was a handsome statement the Lincoln County National Bank sent out to its patrons and friends this week, and it was also a mighty good one, showing that institution to be in a splendid condition. The U. S. flag ornaments the first page of the statement and below it the announcement is made that subscriptions are received by the bank for the Liberty Loan of 1917. The bank was never in better condition than now, with interest-bearing accounts amounting to $535,162.18. The deposits are $348,789.46. A statement of the Lincoln Trust Co. also appears in the folder. That institution is just a year old and has made rapid strides. It has loans far in excess of its capital stock and is in every way in a most satisfactory condition.

POSTPONEMENT DESIRED

An effort is being made to get Judge Charles A. Hardin to postpone the May term of the Lincoln circuit court, which is set for May 28th, until a week later, June 4th. Two good reasons are given, the best of which is the circuit court room will not be ready for occupancy by May 28th, but it is believed that it will be a week later, and another is that it will conflict with the Chautauqua, May 27th to 31st, inclusive. Many of the attorneys and others who desire to attend each session of the Chautauqua would be deprived of the pleasure. It is hoped that Judge Hardin will grant the request and the Interior Journal is certain that he will unless he has some good reason not to do so.

LAYING UP FOOD SUPPLIES

A Stanford merchant told the I. J. yesterday that he had sold more goods in the past month or so than in years; that people are buying sugar and flour by the barrel who formerly got it in small sacks. He thinks, and very likely he is right, that they are laying up the food supplies, fearing the scarcity that is predicted will pinch them. Whether or not that scarcity will come, those who are buying now are seemingly making good investments for foodstuff, like everything else, is getting higher and higher daily and there's no telling where it will stop.

TOO LIGHT TO GET IN

Jack McCreary, who finished a jail sentence for disturbing religious worship and in 30 minutes enlisted under a recruiting officer who was here, was taken to Louisville for examination. He was three pounds too light for his height and could not get in Cub Holmes, who is in jail for the same offense McCreary was, says he will join Uncle Sam's army if given his liberty and he may be given it. He has about 15 days more to serve.

HELD OVER TO BIG COURT

Miss Cleatie Kidd was tried in Judge J. P. Bailey's court Thursday on the charge of trespassing on the land of John Bourne and was held over to circuit court. Curt Jerkey was tried on a writ sworn out by Dave Christopher charging that the former's cattle had done him damage by being permitted to run out. He was acquitted on the grounds that there is no stock law in the district.

MR. ELMORE SUFFERS FALL

The aged Mr. M. D. Elmore had the misfortune to fall from the counter he was sitting on in his store. Tuesday night and severely hurt himself. The leg that was badly hurt some months ago caught the weight of the fall and was hurt over. Dr. Peyton says the splendid old gentleman is in a right bad fix, but that he hopes and believes that he will be able to pull through.

KILLING THE CALVES

There were 7,450 calves on the Pittsburg cattle market last week. Butchering these young things will have a tendency to make meat higher, as well as reduce the already small number of cattle in the U. S. It is little less than a crime to kill calves at this stage of the meat game.

MEASLES LEADS TO DEATH

Woodrow Lewis, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Lewis, of the Highland section, died Wednesday afternoon of pneumonia. He had an attack of measles and pneumonia followed with fatal results. The burial occurred in the Methodist church burying ground Thursday afternoon.

An armed American liner fired six shots at a submarine on May 2 off the coast of Ireland. The U-boat disappeared after the first shot, but it is not known whether the undersen boat was hit.

A decrease in British vessels sunk by submarines is shown in the report for last week, when only twenty-four were sent down.

The Federal Shipping Board bought from American owners seven Austrian merchantmen, totaling 52,451 tons, for $6,778,000.

Kentucky has 202,000 men between the ages of 21 and 30, inclusive, who will be subject to draft if the army conference report adopted today is ratified by the House and Senate. There are about 10,027,300 men of these ages in the United States.

It will be virtually impossible for county and city registration boards to exercise favoritism in enrolling soldiers under the selective draft act, according to a statement issued by Provost Marshal Gen. Crowder. Officials are warned that any attempt to do so will be punished.

S. H. S. GETS HER SHARE

The annual high school tournament which is held at Lexington, is taking place this week. Heretofore Stanford has been well represented in the events and this year the local contestants are performing their parts very creditably. Miss Belle Russell and Miss Nellie Wilson Hill, who went from here to enter in the vocal matches, were awarded the first place, for a duet. Both of these young ladies have excellent voices and their ability was soon recognized.

Miss Russell has a high soprano voice, while Miss Hill's is a beautiful alto. Miss Russell also secured third place in a solo. These accomplishments are generally appreciated by the whole school and all are very grateful to them for their achievements. Thursday night, the boys' declamatory contest was held when Ferdinand Matheny represented S. H. S. Lawrenceburg, Louisville, and Lancaster finished in the order named, while Stanford's representative was fourth and while Mr. Matheny got no medal for his place, medals being awarded to only the first three, still he made a good showing and his efforts are appreciated by all. Miss Frances Embury played the accompaniments for the singers and helped them greatly to win their medals. Miss Higgins, who is the vocal music teacher of the school, went with her pupils and much credit is to be given to her for her untiring efforts in preparing for the tournament. Both Miss Hill and Miss Russell and also Mr. Matheny are among the graduates this year and it is sincerely hoped that S. H. S. will be as well represented in the future as before.

MRS. HUMBLE'S BURIAL

The remains of Mrs. Rachel Humble, mention of whose death appeared in Tuesday's paper, occurred at Perryville Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Overstreet, pastor of the Presbyterian church of that city, preached a splendid funeral sermon, after which the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery there. A large audience attended the service and accompanied the remains to their last resting place. Pall bearers from Mrs. Humble's old home at Perryville were chosen.

TRACTOR PLOWS WORKING

The Junction City Lumber Co., agent for Madison, Boyle, Casey, Garrard and Lincoln counties for the B. F. Avery & Co. Tractor Plows, is demonstrating their usefulness near Junction City today and tomorrow and invites the farmers from all sections to come and see the good work that is being done with them. Two of the plows are in operation and soil is being turned in a hurry.

HERBERT C. HOOVER, in a statement issued last night, declared that with control present food prices may be greatly reduced, but that if the situation is left open to the speculators further advances must be expected. Mr. Hoover is suggested as American food controller.
